

Listed below are the current articles available for use in your SELECT newsletter from the online library. Column one includes the current Page One articles, and in column two we list the companion article available for Page Three. You may mix-and-match, e.g., if you select an article from the Page One column, there is a companion article suggestion, but you are not required to select that. Additionally, you may choose to upload your own custom article for Page Three. If you need assistance with that, please do not hesitate to call us at 1-877-352-2021, ext. 82.

Remember that if you do not go online to make a choice, your order will be automatically produced for you, using the two articles at the top of the list below.

We suggest you print this out, check which articles you are using, mark the date at the top of the page and keep this in your Newsletter Marketing file for future reference so you will always know which articles you have already used and when.
